Make provision for the future administration of the A.D. 1881.
Property and the performance of the Duties vested in the Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 5 1. This Act may be cited as the Irish Church Act Amendment Short title.
Act, 1881.
- 10 2. On a day to be fixed by the Lord Lieutenant, by Order in Council, the Corporation of the Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any Expiring Laws Continuance Act, be dissolved. Such order shall not be made unless a corporate body under the title of "the Irish Land Commission," to whom the property vested in the Commissioners of Church Temporalities may be transferred under this Act, has previously been constituted by statute. Dissolution of Church Temporalities Commission.
- 15 On the dissolution of the said Corporation the following provisions shall take effect with relation to the property belonging to them as such Corporation, and with respect to their powers under the Irish Church Act, 1869: Transfer of property and powers.
33 & 34 Vict.
c. 42.
- 20 (1.) All lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and every estate and interest therein, and all fixtures and furniture belonging to the Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland in their capacity as such Commissioners, shall, without any conveyance or assignment thereof, be vested in the Irish Land Commission, to be held for the same uses, trusts, and
- 25 purposes for which the same were held respectively previous to the passing of this Act. The house No. 24, Upper Merrion Street, in the city of Dublin, now occupied as an office by the Commissioners of Church Temporalities, and all fixtures and furniture therein, may be used by the Irish Land Commission for any of the purposes for which the said Land Commission is constituted. The said Irish Land Commission shall be entitled to the benefits of all covenants, conditions, or agreements in relation to the premises so transferred, 5 express or implied, and to maintain all actions, suits, and other proceedings grounded thereon in their own name; and the said Commission shall in like manner be liable to all payments, reservations, covenants, conditions, and agreements, express or implied, in respect of the same premises respectively, as fully 10 as the Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland would have been if this Act had not been passed: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect any action or other proceeding which may have been commenced before the passing of this Act, but the same may proceed, with the like conse- 15 quences and results, as if this Act had not been passed.

(2.) All moneys, stocks, and securities standing in the name of the Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland in the books of the Bank of Ireland, shall be entered in or transferred to the name of the Irish Land Commission, and be subject to 20 the same trusts and powers as the same were liable to before the dissolution of the Commissioners of Church Temporalities; and the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, under instructions from the Treasury, are hereby authorised and required to make the aforesaid entry or transfer in their books. 25

(3.) Any obligation, security, or chose in action vested in the Commissioners of Church Temporalities may be proceeded upon by the Irish Land Commission in their own name as the same might have been proceeded upon by the Commissioners of Church Temporalities. 30

(4.) All the powers, authorities, and duties, rights, titles, and interests, vested in or exercised by the Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland under the Irish Church Act, 1869, or any Act amending the same, and which are in force at the time of the dissolution of the said corporation, shall vest in 35 and devolve upon and be exercised by, the Irish Land Commission, who shall, for the purposes of such Acts, be deemed to be the successors of the Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland.

5 such person who is qualified to receive under the forty-fourth section of the Irish Church Act, 1869, an annual sum on retirement from the service of the Commissioners of Church Temporalities shall forfeit his right under that section by being appointed to a situation under the Irish Land Commission.

10 Notwithstanding the dissolution before the thirty-first day of December next after the passing of this Act, under the provision in that behalf herein-before contained, of the corporation of the Commissioners of Church Temporalities in Ireland, the Treasury may, if they see fit, direct that the salaries of the said Commis-
15 sioners, and of all persons employed by them on salary, and not appointed to situations entitling them at the same time to receive salaries under the Irish Land Commission, shall continue, up to the thirty-first day of December next after the passing of this Act, to be paid out of the property transferred by this Act to the Irish
20 Land Commission.

The annual sum on retirement which any person is qualified to receive under the said forty-fourth section of the Irish Church Act, 1869, shall be ascertained immediately after the passing of this Act, in the manner prescribed by the said section, as if the date of 25 such person's retirement were the thirty-first day of December next after the passing of this Act, and such annual sum shall begin to be paid from that date to the person entitled to receive the same, provided that such person does not receive an appointment under the Irish Land Commission, or any other appointment of which
30 the salary or remuneration is provided out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of moneys voted by Parliament. If any person to whom such an annual sum is payable receives an appointment under the Irish Land Commission, or an appointment of which the salary or re-
35 muneration is provided as last aforesaid, the payment of the said annual sum shall be subject to the same conditions as if it were a superannuation allowance or compensation within the meaning of the twentieth section of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter
40 twenty-four, and as if the appointment which such person has received were in all respects an appointment in a public department within the meaning of the said section.

4. A separate account shall be kept by the Irish Land Commission of the property transferred to them under this Act.
